Jenni is an experienced and extremely able defence advocate whose practice is equally divided between serious financial and general heavyweight crime, with an emphasis on murder, sexual offences (often historic) and causing death by dangerous driving. Described in the 2019 Legal 500 directory as “a total star”, “incredible with clients” and as having “great tactical nous”, she is regularly instructed in high-profile cases and has built up a loyal following of solicitors. She is remarkably tenacious and diligent, and is adroit in her jury handling, cross-examination technique, assertiveness and tactical acumen.

Jenni deals regularly with difficult, paper-heavy or complex cases and is currently holding instructions in a number of serious cases due for trial in 2019. She is very well respected within the legal profession and often represents barristers, solicitors and their friends and family in criminal proceedings. She has, for many years, been recognised as a highly recommended “Leader at the Bar” and, as a new Silk, is ranked in the Chambers UK Directory.

She is committed to providing representation under public funding, although she is now generally instructed privately by clients. She was appointed as a Recorder of the Crown Court in 2018.

Crime

Murder

A large part of Jenni’s practice concerns defendants charged with murder, usually shootings:

- R v H (2019) - instructed for 25-year old defendant charged in connection with a fatal stabbing in East London.
- R v T (2019) - instructed in 6-week murder trial. Defendant, along with two others, alleged to have murdered her husband.
- R v X (2019) instructed in 4-week murder trial for 16-year old defendant charged, along with 3 others, in connection with a fatal stabbing in North London.
- R v U (2019) – instructed in 8-week murder trial involving 9 defendants concerning the fatal shooting of 20 year old male.

- R v P (2019) – instructed in 4-week murder trial concerning fatal attack upon a male in the defendant’s home address.
- R v R (2018) – instructed as QC in 10-week murder trial involving four defendants arising out of the activities of a “County Lines” drug syndicate.
- R v S (2018) – instructed as QC in 5-week murder trial involving seven defendants concerning the fatal stabbing of a 17-year old boy.
- R v H (2018) – instructed as QC in 6-week murder involving six defendants, said to be gang-related, arising from the fatal stabbing of a 19-year old boy.
- R v W (2017) Leading defence counsel in a 5-week conspiracy to murder, said to be a revenge drive-by shooting following a long-standing dispute between two families in Essex.
- R v A (2017) Defence counsel in a 5-week, attempted murder following group stabbing of victim on petrol station forecourt.
- R v F (2017) Defended lead defendant in an attempted murder trial following a shooting outside a North London nightclub.
- R v B (2016) Leading defence counsel in an 8-week with conspiracy to murder (a “contract hit” where the victim was shot in the chest on his doorstep with a sawn-off shotgun).
- R v T (2015) Defended female charged with murder of elderly male in his own property.
- R v D (2015) Defended in manslaughter where homeowner died during the course of an aggravated burglary

General Crime

- R v X (2018) – Instructed to defend defendant solicitor charged with assault on wife.
- R v U (2018) – Instructed to defend heroin dealer charged with conspiracy to supply wholesale quantities of heroin and money laundering.

- R v M (Jan 2018) Defending Metropolitan Police Officer charged with sexual assault whilst on duty.
- R v J (2017) Successfully represented lead defendant in alleged gang-related possession of firearm (sawn-off shotgun) with intent to endanger life. Trial lasted 3 months. Said to be a plan for a revenge shooting following the murder of another male the previous day.

- R v W (2017 & A-G's Ref 2017) Leading counsel for defendant charged with aggravated burglary at a farmhouse where the homeowners were tied up and very seriously assaulted.
- R v C (2017) Defending an acid attack on three individuals during the course of an aggravated burglary.
- R v J (2017) Defending lead defendant in conspiracy to possess firearm with intent to endanger life, said to be a planned revenge attack following murder.
- R v A (2016) Defending lead defendant of a highly organised drugs gang responsible for one of the biggest seizures of cannabis in the UK (4 tonnes) and money laundering.
- R v K (2016) Defending conspiracy to facilitate illegal immigration into UK.
- R v Y (2016 & A-G's Ref 2016) Defending female prison officer charged with misconduct in public office.
- R v R (2015) – Instructed to defend US attorney charged with assaulting former partner.

Fraud, Corruption & Money Laundering

- R v C (2017-2018) Instructed to defend the director of a company charged with large-scale investment fraud.
- R v A (2017) Defending lead defendant in very substantial confiscation proceedings where Crown (in the event unsuccessfully) contended hidden assets in respect of over £1m.
- R v K (2017) Leading counsel in 3-week trial for the main defendant, a former stockbroker, charged with investment fraud in connection with the sale of rare earth metals.
- R v N (2015) Defending company director charged with 9 others with fraud, corruption & money laundering. It was the prosecution case that, over a number of years, corrupt payments were made to the first defendant, the Deputy Property Manager of the Royal Household, as an inducement or reward for favouring a number of contractors in respect of the award of large contracts at Buckingham & Kensington Palaces.
- R v B (2015) Represented the lead defendant of 6 who, before its collapse, ran Crown Currency, one of the UK's largest personal currency exchange businesses. Defendant charged with fraudulent trading, money laundering, perverting the course of justice and false accounting. Prosecution alleged c. 13,000 UK investors affected.
- R v M (2015) Defended in "social engineering" fraud (losses of £1m+) where large PLCs were targeted. Crown alleged the victim companies were duped into revealing their security-generated banking codes. Telephone lines were also compromised, allowing access to their company bank accounts.

Sexual Offences

Jenni is frequently instructed in cases involving multiple, often historic, complaints.

- R v O (2018) – Instructed for defendant charged with serious drug and sexual offences, arrested following an undercover Police operation
